

2011 DARDEN ALUMNI AND FACULTY VOLUNTEER AWARDS

The awards below recognize volunteers and classes who did outstanding work in the 2011 fiscal year. Many thanks to all of our volunteers. Your hard work strengthens every part of the Darden experience.

2011 Outstanding Secretary

Secretary who went above the call of duty in supporting the school and their class.

Nate Bachman (MBA '61)

Although officially the secretary (he never misses a class notes deadline), for the past year Nate has also functioned as the class agent and reunion chair. His efforts yielded the highest giving rates in history for his class.

2011 Outstanding Class Officer Team

Agent and Secretary team who worked together seamlessly during the reunion process to achieve successful giving and attendance.

Mary Buckle, Ben Mix and Greg Yorke (MBA '86)

The 1986 Class Officer Team achieved the highest reunion overall dollar total, highest reunion Darden Annual Fund dollar total and 39% participation at their 25th reunion — the highest attendance participation at a 25th reunion in the past 20 years — while also increasing their own attendance 15% over the 2006 reunion.

2011 Outstanding International Chapter Leader

Chapter leader who went above the call of duty in supporting the school and their class.

China (Beijing) – Jerry Peng (MBA '03)

The International Chapter Leader award is presented to Jerry Peng, of the Beijing Chapter, for his efforts to revitalize the chapter activities, welcome student treks and interns, and promote Darden to prospective students.

2011 Outstanding Domestic Chapter Leader

Chapter leader who went above the call of duty in supporting the school and their class.

Washington, D.C. – Rebecca Kilduff (MBA '93) and Abby Ruiz de Gamboa (MBA '04)

The Domestic Chapter Leader award is presented to Rebecca Kilduff and Abby Ruiz de Gamboa of the Washington, D.C. Chapter for their exemplary organization of high-level engagement activities for alumni, students and prospective students. The D.C. Chapter represents Darden's largest chapter.

2011 Faculty Participation Committee

Darden School faculty set a new record of 87% participation in giving in 2010-2011.
